WRIT PETITION NO.4257 OF 2006

O R D E R (Per the Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, J):

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that they have already cleared the arrears and paid the tax although they are not legally bound to pay the tax as the Municipality has not issued any notice to the original owners. Even in the writ petition, the petitioner has not given any particulars of the original owners. According to him, one Smt Rekha Devi, Smt M.Vimala Devi and Smt Kamala Devi are the owners, but no other particulars of these ladies have been given.

In these circumstances, we dispose of the writ petition as the tax has been paid, giving liberty to the petitioner to give the names and particulars of the original owners to the Municipality and if such particulars are given, the respondents may proceed against the owners as well in accordance with law. The petitioner is also at liberty to take any steps that are available to him in law to recover the amounts paid by him by way of tax to the Municipality from the original owners if entitled to. No order as to costs.
